METHOD NIGHT VOL. 5

by Hideki Nakazawa

Performance "Coined Words Reading"

7 pm on Friday, May 23, 2003

323 W 39th NYC, Studio 610 at ISCP

Some of Hideki Nakazawa's art works are made of coined words. Although his intention is "paintings," they can be read aloud because they are letters. Three performers, Sooyeon Lee, Viktoria Binschtok, and Hideki Nakazawa, will read his works which are currently installed on the walls in his studio. You can also see his latest floor installation made of 30,000 coins. After the performance, there will be an open discussion and a small party. COME AND WITNESS TODAY'S TRUE RADICALISM.

METHOD NIGHT VOL. 5 is a monthly event on METHOD ART and METHODICISM, presented by Hideki Nakazawa, a Japanese artist, who calls himself a METHODICIST. METHODICISM was launched in Japan in 2000, when Nakazawa et al. drafted "Method Painting, Method Poem, Method Music (Methodicist Manifesto)."

Nakazawa is a current participant in ISCP, International Studio and Curatorial Program in NYC, being supported by the Agency for Cultural Affairs, Japanese Government.
